Preliminary Program

Friday May 15th 2009 Meet & Greet

You are welcome at Wilmersberg Estate.

If you are early you can visit the area, visit a brick or wooden shoe factory or take a ride on a bicycle.

All information will be present at the Wilberberg lobby.

In the evening the board of the SPCN will welcome everyone and you can enjoy a dinner buffet.

Saturday May 16th Activity Day

You can make your choice.

A: Tour by car as a Studebaker or Packard driver, or as a passenger.

Visit a magnificent car dealer of exclusive European brands like Ferrari, Maserati, Jaguar and so on.

Coffee, Tea and a sweat snack from the region.

Tour passing several ancient Castles in the area and lunch at a scenic location.

B. Bus Tour by an original Greyhound bus.

Visit several World War II sites, Airborne Museum, Market Garden Tour and the John Frost bridge in Arnhem

We will spend the evening together with dinner, music and good company.

Sunday May 17th Autojumble

On the Wilmersberg Estate we display our cars, stroll around, take a peek under the hood.

There are some stands with parts, Studebaker and Packard goodies and catering for food and drinks.

Awards will also be presented.

General info

SPCN Alarm number

When you enlist we will provide you with the SPCN Alarm number, a cell Phone number which you can call, just in case.

Breakdowns

As you know, breakdown of any Studebaker or Packard is not allowed, just in case your beloved automobile doesn't obey this simple rule, we have arranged a local mechanic to stand by.

Surveillance

There will be some surveillance of the parking area, it's an extra service the hotel is offering, but the hotel can't be held responsible for any mishaps. The site is very quiet and isn't visible from main roads.

Booking the hotel

If you wish you can book the hotel. Mention Studebaker-Packard Club Netherlands 10 years.
